General Member

Individuals or organizations who have demonstrated an interest in the work of the Society, and make a stated commitment to "contribute" or "contribute in kind" to the Society and/or participate in future Society events. General Members have voting rights at the AGM and any special meetings.

Associate Member

Individuals who currently participate in the life of the Society, either as a client, volunteer or paid staff member and who make a stated commitment to "contribute" in addition or "contribute in kind" to the Society and/or participate in future Society events. Persons eligible for associate membership include:

- Current Clients
- Employees of the Society
- Society volunteers, with a minimum six months of service

Associate Members do not have voting rights due to conflict of interest.

Honorary Member

Individuals of special merit who have been so recommended by a vote of 75% of the current Board of Directors. Honorary Members do not have voting rights.

By becoming a member, I agree to the following:

- To abide by the constitution and by-laws of the Society (available upon request)
- To attend the Annual General Meeting (AGM) and any Extraordinary or Special General Meeting of the Society.
- These meetings may entail the following: voting in a Board slate, amendments to by-laws, special resolutions, appointment of auditor and any other business related to the Society.
- To "contribute" or "contribute in kind" to the Society and/or participate in future Society events.
