Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada (LINC)

Learn English today!

Learning English is an important part of building your new life in Canada.

LINC is a free program that provides English training for adult newcomers. While learning the language, you will also learn about Canadian culture, society and services in the community. Parent? Your children can take part in early childhood education activities in English, too.

LINC classes will improve your English:

Reading

Writing

Listening

Speaking
